

CASA Tactical Rifle Match 24 Jan 2009

A scoring summary for the match is set forth below. As you may recall, during the match briefing, I mentioned the difficulties in scoring this type of match – do you count all scores, or merely require targets to be neutralized? How do you compare target hits and real world results? How do you score a match so that gamesmanship is not paramount? After struggling with these problems, I settled on a variation of Time Plus scoring (from the 2009 USPSA Multi-gun Rules) that seemed the most fair for this match. Within each stage, shooters are generally ranked by score within sight class. Stage winners are identified.

Team totals:                      Red Team =            1347.514127    Blue Team=    1316.84855
 Red Team: Ron Johnston, Don Baker, Brenda Snow, David Scott, and Jason Wilson
 Blue Team: Bob Houston, Matt McArthur, Dale Williams, J. Plunkett, and Josh Thompson
 The Partisans: Wayne Johnston and Tripper Cronkhite (no team score, just preparation of the battlefield!)

3. One Shot One Ex 30 Points Max Red Team = 70.7303325 Blue Team = 82.9485898

15 yd hostage shot at 2 ½" visible of bad guy target; one other bad guy and two dog targets
 Note: 8 of 12 shooters hit the hostage! This was a trick shot – the visible target was shorter than the distance between line of sight and rifle bore. Aiming at center of mass of the target always hits the hostage.
 Because hitting the hostage is mission failure, points are deducted. Misses merely add time; 5 sec per miss.
